

About CASLIS Toronto

CASLIS Toronto is ...

... the local chapter of CASLIS , providing professional development opportunities to information professionals for over 30 years.

CASLIS Toronto exists to support and strengthen the Toronto community of information professionals who serve specialized clientele or who work in specialized settings.

CASLIS was founded in 1975

We have over 200 members working in every sector of the Canadian economy, from all levels of government, and industries such as banking, mining, health services, law, and engineering.

CASLIS Toronto is one of 6 CASLIS chapters

CASLIS Toronto wants to hear from you! Sign up:

Join the Canadian Library Association (CLA) and choose CASLIS as your free division affiliation.

What will it cost?

The cost of joining CLA depends on the category of membership that you select.

- Personal Membership $200
- Introductory Membership $100
- Student Membership $50

CLA members can sponsor new CLA members for one or two years by paying their membership fee.

Benefits of Membership

CASLIS Toronto gives you the opportunity to join over 250 Information Professionals at the best special library-focused programs in the city! With CASLIS, you will share best practices, determine benchmarks for your organization, network, develop your career and enhance the profession. All of this with a uniquely Canadian perspective. Join Us!

[Rachel's stuff goes here]

How to join:

Visit the CLA membership site to sign up.

Subscribe to CASLIS TO Listserv