

Welcome to CASLIS Toronto, a chapter of Canadian Association of Special Libraries and Information Services (CASLIS), a division of the Canadian Library Association (CLA)

Upcoming Events

What does the future of the Web hold?

Date: Thursday, October 15, 2009

Time: Name tag & receipt pick-up: 5:30 p.m. Program: 6:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m.

Place: Oakham House / Ryerson Student Centre Conferencing, Room G (main floor)
55 Gould Street, Toronto, Ontario M5B 1E9

Nearest subway station: Dundas

Register online or Download the program registration form

-
- Would you like to sponsor an individual for an upcoming event? Click here for details
 - Wondering what programs CASLIS Toronto has offered in the past? Visit our archive of previous programs!
-

What's New

- Rebecca Jones, Meaningful Measurements Presentation, Feb. 5, 2009: presentation and measurement template available.
- To read past newsletters visit the Newsletters Archive.
- Visit the Photographs section to see pictorial coverage of the latest CASLIS events.
- Check out the News section for the Library and Information Industry in the news.

Call for Volunteers 2009-2010 - CASLIS Toronto needs you!

Our 2008-2009 programming year concluded in May with a fabulous tour of the Bata Shoe Museum. While this past year has ended, our Executive is hard at work planning another full year of exciting events for 2009-2010. Stay tuned!

In the meantime, if you're interested in serving on the CASLIS Toronto Chapter executive, please get in touch with us - we always welcome new volunteers and we'd love to hear from you.

Have a great summer and we look forward to seeing you in the fall!

Lily Mac
President, CASLIS Toronto Chapter

see CASLIS Toronto Executive Roles and Responsibilities (Word document)